Faculty and Supervisor’s Checklist

For responding to any concerns relating to sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, sexual assault, stalking, relationship (dating or domestic) violence, stalking, retaliation, and gender discrimination

DO

- Listen, show compassion
- Attend to any immediate safety needs
- Address confidentiality vs. privacy (Admin. Guide 1.7.1)
- Clarify nature of concern
- For concerns involving students, postdocs, faculty or staff, notify the SHARE Title IX Office (even if you believe it was already reported)
- Explain what will happen next
- Inform them that harassment and retaliation are prohibited
- Connect reporting party to resources
- Check in and follow up with the impacted party/parties

DON’T

- Promise confidentiality
- Blame or judge
- Investigate and try to figure out what happened
- Overpromise results
- Share an individual’s private info with people who do not need to know

To report concerns involving students, faculty, staff and post docs:
SHARE Title IX Office
650-497-4955
titleix@stanford.edu

Confidential Faculty, Staff and Postdoc Resource:
Faculty Staff Help Center
Office: 650-723-4577
Email: helpcenter@lists.stanford.edu

Confidential Student Resource:
Confidential Support Team (24/7)
Office: 650-736-6933
24/7 Hotline: 650-725-9955
sexualviolencesupport.stanford.edu

2021